A Word from the Pastor...

I get it. Ladies love purses. They love different sizes, shapes, colors and brands. I am okay with that...no problem with me. The only problem I would have with a purse is if I were asked to carry one! Not gonna do it. No ma'am.

Ladies, evidently your "purse"onality is a reflection of your personality. The ladies of Lakeside are busy preparing and planning a special "Purse"onality Conference for you and your friends to enjoy! I invite you to come and trust that you will be enriched and blessed by the fellowship, fun and inspiring sessions.

Sincerely,

Tad Marshall, Pastor
Lakeside Baptist Church

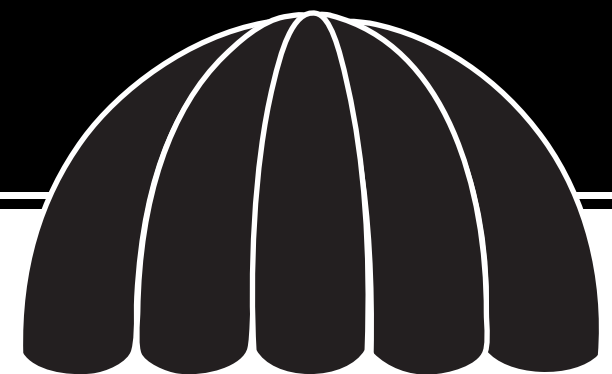

Guest Speaker Trish McCoy

Trish McCoy was saved at the age of four. She is the wife of David McCoy, pastor of Peoples Baptist Church in Atlanta. She says of her role as pastor's wife, "It is my privilege to minister to the one who ministers to others." She assists her husband in the day-to-day operations of their ministry.

Trish taught high school English and business classes for seventeen years. She presently serves as a high school adviser, academic supervisor, and counselor. She has written many lessons for ladies, taught a ladies' Sunday School class for many years, conducts a weekly ladies' morning Bible study, and travels extensively with her husband conducting family seminars.
